Nina G. Gunter is a preacher, teacher, author, and the first woman to be general superintendent, now emerita, in the Church of the Nazarene. The Church of the Nazarene has nearly 2 million members in 155 world areas.

At the time of her election to General superintendent, Dr. Gunter was serving as general director of Nazarene Missions International (NMI). During her 20-year tenure she initiated many missions programs, and annual missions giving increased from $30 million to $62 million.

Nina Gunter earned a bachelor’s degree from Trevecca Nazarene University (TNU), a master’s degree from the University of South Carolina in Columbia, and is the first woman to be honored by her Alma mater, TNU, with the honorary doctor of divinity degree.

Dr. Gunter's books include, The Traveler's Psalm, Our Defining Moment, Christian Perfection, The Cross—Seize It! Share It!, and Holy Leadership in a Hectic World. Her most recent book released in 2009, contains a lifetime of leadership principles filtered through the guidance of the Holy Spirit for the marketplace, home, church, classroom, or anywhere followers are looking for holy leaders. It is available by E-mailing HolyLeadership@aol.com.

She is married to Dr. Moody Gunter. They have two married sons, Dwight and Dwayne, and four grandchildren, all of whom serve the Lord in the Church of the Nazarene.

Dr. Nina Gunter continues to preach the Word by conducting holiness crusades, Faith Promise and missions conventions, camp meetings, retreats, and conferences. She and her husband often speak together, including his areas of expertise, especially church finance and Christian stewardship.
